Create a Love of Reading in Your Children through Jewish Books

Join us for the Kickoff Event of the PJ Library in Dallas with DIANE W. FRANKENSTEIN, award-winning author of Reading Together: Everything You Need to Know to Raise a Child Who Loves to Read

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2011
3:00-5:00 P.M.

The Tycher Library in the Mankoff Center for Jewish Learning
Aaron Family Jewish Community Center (the J)
7900 Northaven Road · Dallas, TX 75230

Learn ways to instill a love of reading in your children, and hear useful topics on making reading with your children an enjoyable and meaningful experience. This event is a must for anyone in the Dallas area with children (age 6 months through 6 years) who are being raised in the Jewish tradition, and can benefit from the cultural support of free Jewish-centered children's books and music. This program is geared towards parents and grandparents.

For adults only. Free child care will be provided in Yad B'Yad room of the J. Email pjlibrary@jfgd.org by October 28th to reserve your child's space. The PJ Library is a gift from the Center for Jewish Education of the Jewish Federation of Greater Dallas through a generous grant from the Mankoff Family Foundation.
